It was my pleasure to share with Canadian and EU colleagues on such an important topic as security and defence. I note the perfect organisation of the event, and the quality of the discussions on all panels. Happy to participate next year of course. No doubt that the cooperation will accelerate in the coming months and years, in particular in the aerospace and digital domains!

Jean-Philippe SCHERER Head of EU & NATO Public Affairs for Defence & Space Airbus

An event that challenges the narratives and allows for expansive discussion on the topics of the day that mutually affect Canada, the EU and its industrial partners, in defence, hi-tech and related sectors. Not to be missed!

Peter S Rafferty MBE DL President Galvion UK Limited

Thanks to the Canada-Europe Economic Chamber - EU and their EU-Canada Business Summit 2023 I had the chance to learn a lot more about Canada as a like-minded business partner for European SMEs. We will definitely share this knowledge with our members.

Stefan Moritz Secretary General European Entrepreneurs CEA-PME

I participated in the panel exploring the huge potential for EU-Canada cooperation on addressing challenges in the area of raw materials for the green transition. A lively moderated discussion with stakeholders from business and finance entities, followed first by questions from a diverse audience including officials, business, academics and students, then by more informal exchanges. All within the frame of a smoothly organised event. To be recommended.

Javier Arregui Alvarez Team Leader European Commission DG TRADE

The summit is a unique space for conversation on the cutting edge of Canada-Europe ties and the future of business relations. With the line-up of influential industry leaders and political decision-makers and a wide array of themes discussed, it's an environment rich in insight and a great opportunity for people to meet, network and brew up ideas.

Rosie Birchard EU Journalist/Correspondent

The EU-Canada Business Summit 2023 was, from my perspective, an unequivocal success in fostering the already strong ties and synergies between two influential regions, Europe and Canada. It stands as an event that not only promises inspirational discussions but also delivers concrete insights shared by industry leaders. Beyond that, it offers networking opportunities, putting you in the same room with influential decision-makers from North America and Europe, making it a truly remarkable and enriching experience.
